PDC US Open

Non PDPA (Professional Darts Players Association) members may enter the PDC US Open main event directly or enter the PDC US Open Friday Night Madness Qualifier, but not both.

Las Vegas Desert Classic / PDPA Player's Championship

Non PDPA members residing in North America may enter both the PDPA Player's Championship and the Las Vegas Desert Classic VI for $250, for a savings of $20.

All PDC North American Pro Tour Events

Non PDPA members who reside in North America are invited to participate. Non PDPA members residing outside of North America may not participate in North American Pro Tour events.

Non PDPA members may enter a maximum of two main events on the PDC North American Pro Tour as a non PDPA member before having to join the PDPA to participate in a third PDC Pro Tour event. The Las Vegas Desert Classic VI Qualifiers on July 2nd and 3rd do not count toward one of the two PDC Pro Tour events, but the main event does. (Example: A non PDPA member may play in the PDC US Open on May 19 and the PDPA Player's Championship on July 1 and still play in the Las Vegas Desert Classic VI Qualifiers on July 2nd and 3rd. If the non PDPA member should qualify for the main event at the Las Vegas Desert Classic VI, he/she must join the PDPA to participate in the main event. Should the non member fail to qualify for the main event, that player may not enter either the Peachtree Open or Windy City Open Pro Tour events until he/she becomes a PDPA member, because that player has already participated in two PDC Pro Tour events as a non PDPA member.)

The five 2007 North American PDC Pro Tour Events will comprise a PDC North American Order of Merit Ranking. The two Canadians and two Americans who rank highest on the PDC North American Order of Merit Ranking after the Windy City Open Pro Tour 501 Singles Event will be invited to participate in the 2008 PDC World Championship.

Where applicable, entry deadlines apply only to the PDC Pro Tour 501 Singles Events. All other events at these tournaments are 'enter on the day' events. See tournament ads for more details.

All funds indicated in this ad are shown in approximate US Dollars. Actual prize money at these events are based on £ pounds sterling and are specified on the tournament fliers.
